

TRANSPORT CARD SYMBOLS

Transport Cards that are added to Company Cards will have their total number divided into as many formations (detachments/mobs/etc) as the Company Card possesses. To aid players in identifying how many elements and formations the transport card is divided into. They will be grouped into boxes signifying how many models serve as transport to one detachment on the company card. Each such group is given an order like any other formation.

This example shows that 3 Kharon Pattern Acquisitors comprises one formation of transports that will transport one detachment in a Prosecutor or vigilator company. Each such box on a transport card means one formation that receives one order.

In the case of the transport attached to a command formation an additional symbol is added to let the player know that this box and grouping of models belongs specifically to the command formation.

This Transport Card for a Prosecutor or Vigilator Company that consists of FOUR boxes which means there are a total of 4 formations to be attached as transport. One of the boxes has a symbol which means that one belongs to the command formation. In total there are 3 formations of 3 element that are attached to 3 detachments of Prosecutor or Vigilator infantry, and 1 formation attached to the command formation.
